

AAPM 35th Annual Meeting & Preconferences Colorado Convention Center | Denver, CO

Preconference Sessions: March 6–7, 2019 | Annual Meeting: March 7–10, 2019

Register today for the must-attend pain meeting of the year.

State-of-the-Art Advancements in Pain Medicine

AAPM35 will bring together the pain care team for 5 days of pain education and networking.

Sessions will focus on the theme "State-of-the-Art Advancements in Pain Medicine" and are designed to advance clinical practice that is mechanism-guided, evidence-based, and personalized in nature.

Join fellow pain medicine stakeholders in Denver this March at AAPM35 and learn about

- procedural and surgical interventions
- pharmacotherapies
- physical, behavioral, and cognitive therapies
- integrative and multidisciplinary care
- diagnostic and imaging sciences
- practice management and navigating the legal landscape
- and much more.

| annualmeeting.painmed.org |

Join us at the must-attend pain meeting of the year.

AAPM35 will feature more than 30 hours of accredited CME pain medicine education and is the must-attend meeting of the year for all clinicians treating patients in pain.

Attendees can look forward to premier preconferences, pro-con debates, problem-based learning discussions, meet the faculty opportunities, 360-degree views on policies affecting pain medicine, and more.

Visit annualmeeting.painmed.org to review program details and session descriptions.

PRECONFERENCE SESSIONS

- MARCH 6 Pain Management Best Practices: Integrative Solutions for Critical Challenges Preconference
- MARCH 7 Opioid and Non-Opioid Medications Management: Filling in the Gaps, Prescribing for the Whole Patient Preconference
Ultrasound Preconference
- MARCH 7-10 AAPM 35th Annual Meeting

Register, book your hotel room, and start planning your time in Denver.

Early-bird registration discounts are available until January 9, 2019.

AAPM has secured a limited number of sleeping rooms at the Hyatt Regency Denver Convention Center, located directly across the street from the Colorado Convention Center, where all meeting activities will take place. Book early to receive the special AAPM group rate.

AAPM members save big on meeting registration.

Not a member? Join today at painmed.org for additional join-and-register savings.

| annualmeeting.painmed.org |

AAPM35

COLORADO CONVENTION CENTER
Denver, CO | March 6-10, 2019

Register today for the must-attend meeting of the year for all clinicians interested in improving their knowledge, competence, and performance in the treatment of pain.

AAPM35 is designed to advance clinical practice that is mechanism-guided, evidence-based, and personalized in nature.

"Truly one of the most informative and relevant meetings I've ever attended."

—AAPM '18 first-time attendee

annualmeeting.painmed.org
#AAPM35

8735 W. Higgins Road
Suite 300
Chicago, IL 60631

PRSR STD
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
Des Plaines, IL
PERMIT NO. 188